

Craft and Culture Club

This club blends the imagination of the student who loves art with the enrichment of learning about other people/places. The club will “travel the world” learning about cultures and making crafts. It is open to all students at DWMS.