

Honor Choir is comprised of 7th and 8th grade vocalists. The group meets before school throughout the year and performs on concerts and occasionally in the community. Honor Choir members experience more challenging music than is taught in class. Auditions are open to any 7th or 8th grade student, and are held in the spring for the next school year. Honor Choir is a year-long activity.