

Math Club is for students who have a passion for problem solving and math. If you like math or like being around people who like math then math club would be a club for you. Students at all levels of math are encouraged to come; there will be games and problems for all to enjoy.