

Show Choir is a small, auditioned group selected from members of Honor Choir and TrebleMakers. The group performs throughout the community, in concerts, and for the elementary schools that feed into DWMS. The music is choreographed and students work hard to present an entertaining program. Show Choir is held during the fall semester.